Professional Experience

I have extensive professional experience as the Founder and Senior Pastor of Grace City Church, where I provide spiritual leadership and support to my community. In my role as Director of Choose Now, I successfully revitalized the program, focusing on educating students, teachers, parents, and community leaders about relationships, education, and leadership. I have also hosted radio broadcasts, delivered sermons nationwide, and mentored individuals through the Champions Corner initiative. My commitment to continuous learning is reflected in my pursuit of degrees in Organizational Leadership and Christian Counseling, as well as certifications in teaching relationship and leadership education. My efforts have earned me numerous accolades, including a humanitarian service award and an honorary doctorate in divinity.
